Corrigendum

Chapter 4, Page 40

In the third paragraph, the following text appears:

Wilss (1976) suggests that the translation competence “requires not only a comprehensive syntactic, lexical, morphological knowledge of the respective source and target languages but a complete stylistic (textual) knowledge of the respective source and target language text worlds as well.”

Though the point of the statement does not change, the above citation was not exactly literal. So this should be replaced by:

Wilss (1976) suggests that the translation competence requires not only a comprehensive syntactic, lexical, morphological, but also stylistic knowledge of the source and target languages as well.
